WOMAN'S WRONGS.
The Woman's Suffrage Association will meet in convention at Masonic Hall, corner of Sixth and Twenty-third streets, to-day. A large attendance is expected, and all those people who believe that woman's wrongs and woman's rights are not evenly balanced, the rights being few and the wrongs many, will find plenty of food for thought and reflection if they attend the proceedings.

THE DOOMED CANINES.

Mayor Ely will issue his proclamation as to dog captures and mode of treatment on June 1. A pound will be selected at the foot of Seventeenth street, East River, to which all vagrant canines must be conducted. After an imprisonment of forty-eight hours all animals of any value, unless redeemed by the payment of $3, will be auctioned off. The balance are to be drowned. Under the ordinance the Mayor is authorized to appoint two dog catchers in each Assembly district, but it is believed that only twenty gentlemen will be designated for this duty. Chief Clerk Hurley has charge of these appointments. In the hour of the day, the Mayor has granted seven day afternoon 6,446 licenses were granted since the 1st inst. About 200 tags were given out yesterday.

THE DOCK DEPARTMENT.

Humors of a change in the direction of the Board of the Department of Docks have circulated the past few days. Several extra meetings were held. Mr. Vanvorpeil, it was stated by some, was to become president, and by others it was thought that Mr. Westervoor, the present chairman, was to be elected to the position. Commissioner Dimmock has not been mentioned in connection with the matter, and it is well known that the private and business affairs of that gentleman would preclude the possibility of his becoming a member of the Board. At the meeting yesterday it was developed that there was to be election or immediate change in the Board. As matters stand, it is thought that any successor of Commissioner Dimmock can name the coming president.

MUNICIPAL NOTES.

The latest statement as to appointments in the vacant commissioner's place—Ex-Mayor Wickes' or Jacob M. Patterson in the Police, and Alderman Purroy in the Park Departments.

THE SQUATTER ACT.

Two boatmen, named George W. Francis and James J. Hannegan, occupy some land upon the Harlem River, between 151st street and the road leading to Macomb's Dam Bridge. Yesterday they were brought into the Fifty-seventh Street Court charged with violating the Squatter Act. The premises appear to belong to Aaron M. Kaymond, of No. 129 Fifth Avenue. It is alleged that during April, 1877, the boatmen entered and used the land without his permission. The court ordered that the boatmen be removed from the premises, and that they be liable for the costs named by the plaintiff, and claimed that Kaymond has no title to the property. They were held to $300 each.
